INSPIRING CONFIDENT CAREERS

Find the session that suits your interests, career path, or is even an area you may not have considered before. See our session themes below.

I INSPIRE

Put simply, these sessions are designed to inspire you. Whether that is to take action in your planning, consider a career pathway that isn't on your radar or inspire you to keep going towards your current goals.

D DISCOVER

Designed to help you discover some industry insights and tips, hear from the experts across a range of topics and overall learn something new about careers, employability and building your confidence.

P PREPARE

Preparing for your future career is vital to ensuring you know what is coming and how you are going to tackle each obstacle on your way to employment. Each session will help you prepare in different ways that can't always be found via Google.

THE SCIENCE BEHIND CONFIDENCE

D DISCOVER

Many people go through life never achieving their full potential. They are afraid of failure, unsure how to step up or lack the confidence they need. But what is confidence? How does it help you achieve? What happens when our lack of confidence holds us back, or when we are too confident? Psychologist and confidence expert, Bram Lagrou will help you understand the science and psychology behind this topic.

Who Should Attend?

This session is especially important for students to want to learn ways to become more confident and achieve their full potential.

When

Thursday 9 August, 4:00pm to 5:00pm

Where
